

What is a Credit Union

A credit union is a not-for-profit, member-owned, financial cooperative; an organization of members, not customers, but part owners. People who receive the personal attention and service that they deserve and expect from their financial institution.

Mid-Tex Federal Credit Union is full service financial institution designed to serve the financial needs of Brown County.

All deposits in Mid-Tex Federal Credit Union are insured up to $250,000.00 by the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) , a federal government agency, through the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund (NCUSIF).

How do I Join

A minimum share deposit of $25.00 is required to open an account and that minimum must remain on deposit as long as you are a member, and remember, "once a member, always a member." By owning a share in Mid-Tex Federal Credit Union you are eligible to vote at the annual meeting for the Board of Directors. The Board selects a credit union manager, who in turn hires the staff to service your account: Participation really is the key!

Who May Join

Mid-Tex Federal Credit Union is an excellent alternative for all your financial needs, and participation is the key. That means involvement by you and all the members of your family!

Mid-Tex Federal Credit Union has a lot to offer everyone, from the oldest to the youngest member of your family!

Membership is available to any persons who live or work in Brown County, Texas; members of record as of November 19th 1992; spouses of persons who died while within the field of membership of this credit union; members of their immediate families; and organizations of such persons. Members of immediate families include: spouses, parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, brothers and sisters.